

Parker Jewish Institute for HEALTH CARE AND REHABILITATION

Where Excellence Is the Standard

From its beginnings in 1907 as a shelter for homeless elderly, the Parker Jewish Institute has evolved into a nationally recognized, non-profit center for the health care and rehabilitation of adults, and a comprehensive network of community health care programs. Parker is also a leading academic campus for the teaching of health care professionals, and an important research center for studies related to aging. Licensed by the New York State Department of Health, Parker is among the leaders in innovative, patient-centered care. Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation: where excellence is the standard.
